Emergency Housing for Adults

Webster House (The Pods)

150 N. Hamilton Street, Poughkeepsie, NY

Are you experiencing homelessness and in need of housing tonight? Webster House offers overnight emergency housing for residents of Dutchess County ages 18+ after a brief screening. Meals, showers, and laundry facilities are available. Guests are expected to meet with a care manager to address the reasons for their homelessness and develop a plan focused on independent living and permanent housing.

To access housing at this location, please arrive by 6:30pm.

Emergency Housing for Families

Gannett House at Hudson River Lodge

Call (845) 452-0019 for more information

The Gannett House program provides meals and limited transportation, along with support services to families dealing with homelessness. All families placed in the program work with a care manager to access community resources and transition to more stable housing.

To access Gannett House, you must first visit the Dutchess County Department of Community and Family Services to request housing assistance. We cannot accept walk-ins at Gannett House.

After-Hours Emergency Placement

For assistance through AHEP, call (845) 471-8454

Families who find themselves homeless outside of the hours when Dutchess County Department of Community and Family Services staff are unavailable should contact the After-Hours Emergency Placement (AHEP) program. Through AHEP, Hudson River Housing staff will assist families in finding emergency housing until DC DCFS is open.

Emergency Housing for Youth (Under 18)

River Haven Youth Shelter

99 Thompson St, Poughkeepsie, NY | (845) 454-3600

Emergency housing and support services for youth who are running away or experiencing homelessness and young people who can otherwise benefit from short-term or respite housing due to family conflict or emergency, risk of court placement, or other issues. The River Haven Shelter is certified by New York State to house youth under 18.

Staff are available 24/7 to handle requests for housing.
